

Disaster Preparedness: Common Goals, Shared Responsibility

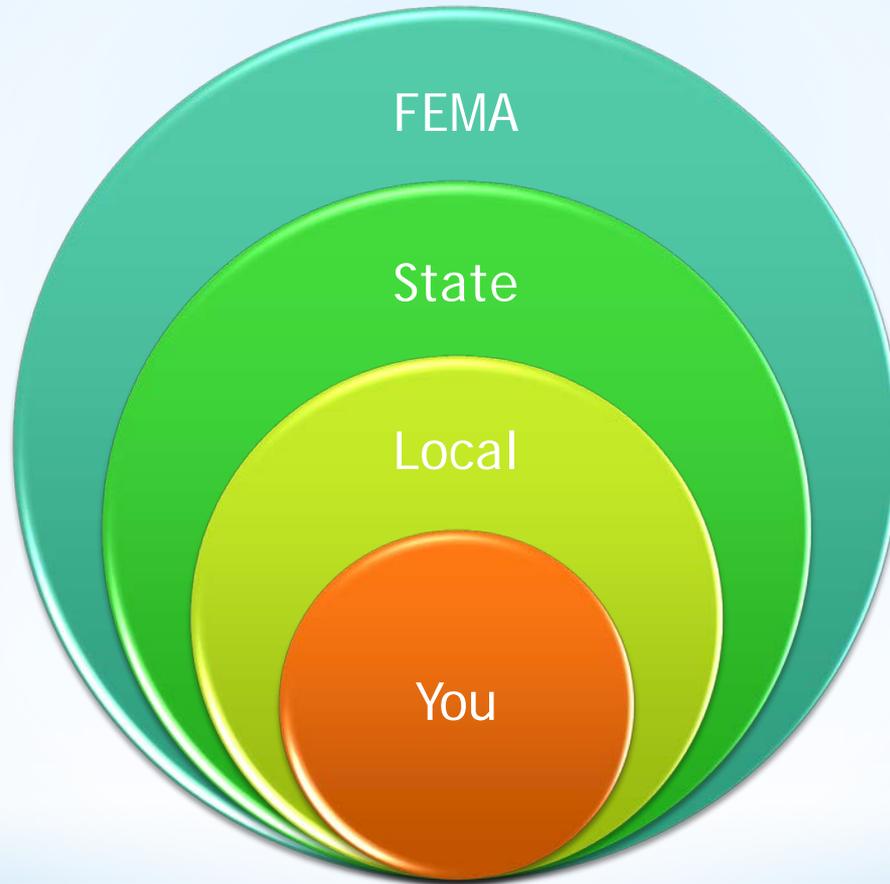

Kiawah & Seabrook Disaster Awareness Day

June 13, 2013

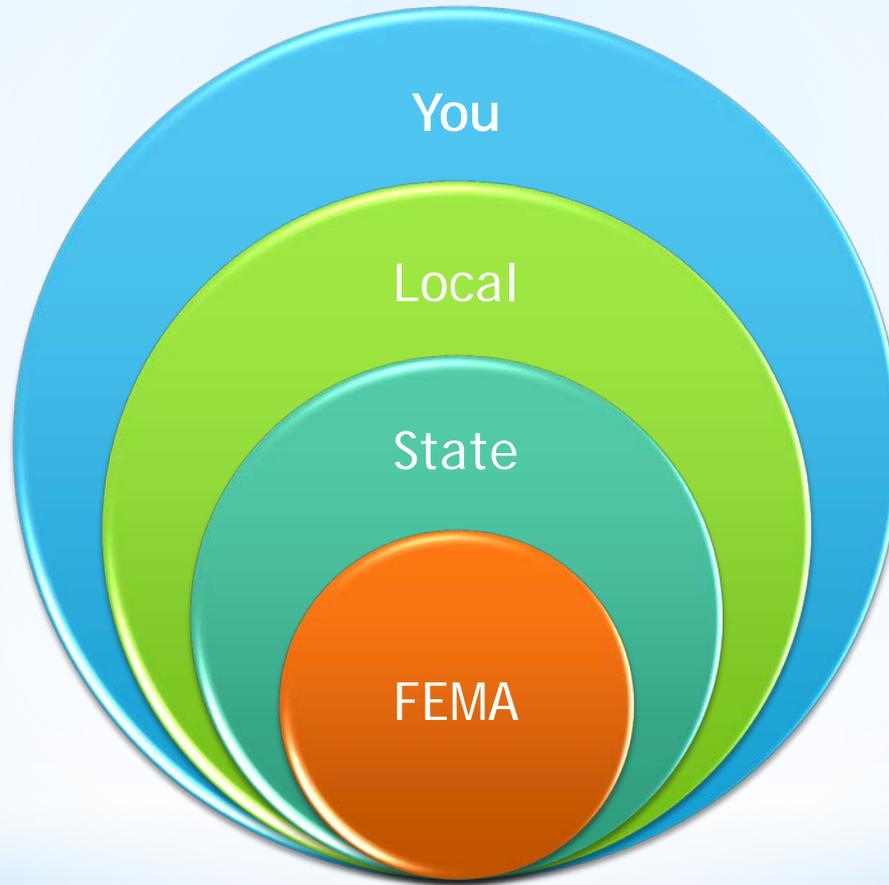

Proper planning can go a long way....

Why Plan?

Disaster Roles Assumed

Disaster Roles Redefined

Hurricane

Tornado

Earthquake

Tsunami

Lightening

Fire

Flooding

Hail

Ice Storm

Know the Threats

- Impacts:

- Injuries
- Deaths
- Homes destroyed

- Lessons:

- Alerts
- Proper Response
- Safe rooms
- Drills

2013 Example

■ Impacts:

- No Power
- No Gasoline
- No Phones
- No Food
- No Supplies

■ Lessons:

- Evacuate early
- Plan for worst
- Insurance

2012 Example

- Impacts:
 - Damage
 - Injuries
 - Panic
 - Communications
- Lessons:
 - Proper Response
 - Insurance
 - A true island

2011 Example

Make a Plan

Participate

Train

Advocate

Partner

Get Involved

KNOW YOUR ZONE

LEARN — PLAN — EXECUTE

Be Aware

* “We can do everything we can” as a state and as a region, but it comes down to people taking personal responsibility, said Governor Haley.

- Post & Courier, June 11, 2013

Shared Responsibility

Scott Cave

Principal

Atlantic Business Continuity Services

(843) 879-5025

scave@atlanticprep.com

www.AtlanticPrep.com

Questions?